

User Role: Approver

As an Approver, you have the ability to search for products, add products to the shopping cart, purchase products, view order history, view and update shopping lists, view reports, request a return authorization and manage billing.

With the role of an Approver, you will have the ability to edit, approve or deny an order that was submitted to you by a Requestor.